ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CORRESPONDENCE

Sheboygan County Health and Human Services Director Matt Strittmater did not have any announcements to share with the Committee today.

Department Head Report – Sheboygan County Health and Human Services Director Matt Strittmater

- Spoke about the project to implement the new electronic health records system. A new vendor has been chosen and the work has begun to implement mapping our system out and preparing for them to analyze their product versus our current system.
- Management team is focusing on things to do for staff thru the end of the year to help with the work challenges employees are facing with the pandemic.

Public Health Update – Public Health and Community Services Manager Starr Grossman

- Covid-19 – reported cases averaging over 100 per day. Staff is restructuring and searching management trying to find the best way to meet the needs of the community and the best way to be most effective in our contact tracing efforts.
- Legionella – no update

Behavioral Health Presentation – Behavioral Health Services Manager - Jackie Moglowsky

New CCS Funded Residential Services

- “Superior” – has two separate facilities under one roof and is designed to serve individuals with mental illness who require high levels of support and supervision.
- “Mertens” – is an eight-bed facility to provide residential treatment services for individuals with addictions to alcohol or drugs.

- “Heller” – is an eight-bed facility designed to provide support and supervision services to individuals with mental illness and/or addiction to alcohol or drugs. Heller is similar to Mertens but residents have less intense needs and have more flexibility to go into the community to look for employment, attend school, etc.
- Overall impact of these new services will be treatment options available locally and at less end cost to the tax levy.
